Progress update

- Ocado Smart Platform integration with Coles' eCommerce systems and digital customer experience and fulfilment progressing to plan
- External building works completed at both sites for handover to Ocado
- The fit out of these facilities, especially the hive and grid, are unique in Australia, requiring complex construction management work systems to be developed and implemented.
- As advised at the 2022 AGM, there had been a construction delay at the New South Wales site. An assessment is ongoing to determine what further impact there may be on scheduled commissioning. However, based on information from Ocado we are working towards the Victorian CFC being commissioned ahead of the New South Wales CFC with an incremental ramp up period commencing mid-FY24 in Victoria and 2H FY24 in New South Wales.
- The revised timeline is not currently expected to have a material impact on Coles' estimated total capital expenditure for the project.

Refer to Slide 30 for further detail

¹ 3-year growth is calculated as growth between 1H23 and 1H20.

² Gross retail sales comprises retail sales on a gross basis before adjusting for concession sales and the cost of Flybuys scheme points. Fuel concession sales are excluded from Express Gross retail sales on the basis Coles does not control retail pricing.

³ 1H23 includes $17 million of implementation operating expenditure in relation to major automation projects (1H22: $22 million).

Cash realisation¹

Inventory and trade payable days²

Comments

- Working capital movement reflects higher payables consistent with seasonal Christmas and New Year trading activity and timing of year end payments
- This was partially offset by increased inventory largely as a result of cost price increases and increased stock holdings to provide additional support for Christmas and New Year in light of supply chain disruptions
- Average inventory days returned to pre-COVID-19 levels, reflecting a partial rebuild of inventory following abnormally low levels over the last few years during COVID-19. Trade payable days increased in line with inventories
- Lower cash flow from provisions predominantly reflecting a reduction in employee entitlement provisions

¹ Cash realisation is calculated as operating cash flow excluding interest and tax, divided by EBITDA.

² Inventory days are calculated as average inventory, divided by cost of goods sold, multiplied by 365 days. Trade payable days are calculated as average trade payables, divided by cost of goods sold, multiplied by 365 days. Inventory and trade payable days for the current period have been calculated on a continuing operations basis, excluding Express which has been classified as a discontinued operation.

Key commentary

- Headline sales growth delivered despite cycling COVID-19 lockdowns in 1H22 and continued supply chain challenges and availability constraints with momentum building through the half (1.6% in 1Q23, 7.4% in 2Q23)
- Inflation was 7.4% in 1H23, with fresh inflation of 8.8% in 1Q23 moderating to 7.1% in 2Q23 offset by packaged inflation increasing from 1Q23 to 2Q23
- Volumes improved in the half with customers responding to value campaigns and increased trade over the Christmas period
- eCommerce sales were $1.4 billion with penetration of 7.2%, as COVID-19 behaviours normalised and some customers returned to shopping in store
- Gross margin of 26.5% increased by 43 bps largely a result of reduced COVID-19 costs, strategic sourcing, product mix and Smarter Selling benefits, partially offset by investment in pricing and increasing headwinds in markdowns and stock loss as a result increasing theft
- CODB as a percentage of sales increased by 15 bps due to wage increases, investments in digital and eCommerce and underlying cost inflation offset by Smarter Selling benefits and ~$130 million decline in direct COVID-19 costs compared to 1H22

Key commentary

- Sales impacted by cycling of on-premise closures and restrictions in 1H22. Growth was positive excluding lockdown impacted states (Victoria, New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory)
- Weather events also had an impact on sales with cooler conditions on the Eastern Seaboard during the Spring and Summer months and store closures from flooding in New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland
- eCommerce sales continued to increase with revenue growth of 13.7% and penetration of 5.6% (6.8% inc. COL), as express delivery was expanded to more than 560 stores
- Gross margin increased by 83 bps largely due to strong performance in ELB and local
- CODB as a percentage of sales increased by 169 bps largely driven by lower sales revenue across the fixed cost base of the business, increased team member wages as a result of the annual Fair Work Commission wage increase coupled with the increase being paid earlier to team members compared to prior years, and investment in our transformation agenda, including our Black and White renewal program and technology investments

¹ Reflects the depreciation and amortisation that would have been incurred if the agreement to sell the Express business had not been entered into.

² Fuel concession sales are excluded from Express gross retail sales on the basis that Coles does not control retail pricing.

Key commentary

- Average weekly fuel volumes of 58.4mL per week with c-store sales revenue up 5.0% vs pcp (6.0% on a three-year basis)
- Gross margin increased by 234 bps mainly due to increased fuel volumes as well as mix impacts, including a decline in tobacco sales
- Underlying CODB as a percentage of sales increased by 26 bps reflecting higher charge card costs in line with higher fuel volumes
- Underlying EBIT was $25 million ($2 million on a pre-AASB 16 basis) excluding divestment impacts

Divestment impacts

- On 21 September 2022, Coles entered into an agreement to sell the Express business to Viva Energy. Upon completion, Coles will receive proceeds of $300 million and will assign the leases relating to the Express business to Viva Energy. These leases accounted for $816 million of the lease liabilities on Coles' 2022 full year balance sheet.
- The Express business has been recognised on balance sheet as an asset held for sale from 21 September and depreciation and amortisation of its assets ceased from that date.
- Statutory EBIT for the period was $56 million, an increase of $31 million on Underlying EBIT, as a result of ceasing depreciation and amortisation of $36 million offset by ~$5 million of transaction costs.

Outlook

We are expecting more customers will be value conscious as increasing cost of living pressures, such as rising mortgage payments and energy prices, continue to impact their budgets.

With the largest Own Brand portfolio in Australia, 'DROPPED & LOCKED' prices, and Australia's favourite loyalty program, Flybuys, Coles is well positioned to meet the increasingly diverse requirements of our customer base.

We are well positioned to navigate the current macro environment and as we look to the future, we expect improving availability, population growth and moderation in out of home dining, which has been elevated post-COVID-19, to positively impact the business and provide further opportunities for growth.

Supermarkets	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Supermarkets volume growth returned to modestly positive from mid-January• Supplier input cost pressures remain. However, inflation is expected to moderate from peak levels• Smarter Selling program will continue to help partially offset inflationary cost pressures, headwinds in mark downs and stock loss, as a result of increasing theft, and allow us to reinvest in the business
Liquor	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Expect earnings to return to growth in 2H FY23 as we exit COVID-19 cycling and focus on building sales momentum, partially assisted by the February excise increase, and continuing to drive ELB growth
Express	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Express fuel and convenience divestment is expected to complete in 4Q FY23
Other	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Expect net increase of $10 million for FY23, inclusive of corporate costs and property sales
Capex and related items	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Full year capital expenditure is expected to be in the range of $1.2 billion to $1.4 billion, inclusive of major automation projects• Full year implementation opex for our major automation projects is expected to be approximately $120 million• Full year depreciation and amortisation is expected to be approximately $1.55 billion for continuing operations and $35 million for the Express discontinued operations (previous ~$1.7 billion assumed no Express divestment)¹

¹ Depreciation and amortisation for the Express business ceased at date of announced sale on 21 September 2022.
