Ethical Sourcing Policy
1. Purpose

Our vision is to become Australia’s most trusted retailer and to grow long-term shareholder value. We commit to respecting the principles of the United Nations’ (UN) Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and the International Labour Organization’s Declaration on Fundamental Principles. These include but are not limited to the right not to be subject to forced labour, the abolition of child labour or the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupations; and freedom of association and the right to collective bargaining. As a signatory to the UN Global Compact, this policy reflects its ten principles related to Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-corruption.

Our Ethical Sourcing Policy (Policy), together with our Ethical Sourcing Supplier Program Requirements (Program Requirements) set out our expectations of our suppliers regarding labour rights, human rights, environment, health and safety, and business integrity.

The size and complex nature of our supply chain makes it impractical for us to directly monitor compliance of every supplier in our extended supply chain. However, as a company that cares deeply about the welfare and safety of workers in all areas of our supply chain, we require our direct suppliers to cascade Coles’ standards outlined in this Policy and the supporting requirements to their own supply chains and ensure these requirements are integrated in relevant supplier operations and agreements to assess and address risks of breach of human rights throughout the supply chain.

2. Policy Application

Compliance with this Policy is a condition of trade for direct suppliers unless a satisfactory alternate position has been specified.

Where requested, suppliers are required to undertake activities to demonstrate their compliance with the Policy.

These activities are outlined in the Program Requirements and may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- provide information about their ethical sourcing performance, through an online supplier portal such as the Supplier Ethical Data Exchange (SEDEX), Fair Farms Certification, SAP Ariba or another format as prescribed by Coles;
- participate in a desktop or on-site audit, administered by Coles;
- undertake a desktop or on-site audit, administered by an independent third party, at the supplier’s expense, to verify compliance with our Policy and Program Requirements; and
- participate in training and development programs.

Audits are used to verify compliance with our Policy and require the auditor to view and evaluate worker records including personal information. Personal information has the meaning given in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

Audits may only be performed by auditors certified by the Association of Professional Social Compliance Auditors (APSCA) who are governed by the APSCA Code and Standards of Professional Conduct (Certified Auditors), including requirements related to confidentiality.

4. Policy Requirements

At Coles, we are committed to sourcing our goods and services ethically and responsibly, and we expect all our partners and suppliers to meet our standards for business integrity, labour and human rights, health and safety, and the environment.

Our Policy and Program Requirements are based on internationally recognised frameworks and instruments, including:

- Ethical Trade Initiative (ETI) Base Code
- International Labour Organization) Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work
- United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights
- United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights
- United Nations Human Right to Water and Sanitation
- Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises
- Children’s Rights and Business Principles (UNICEF, UN Global Compact and Save the Children)
- United Nations International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families
- United Nations Global LGBTI Standards for Business

We monitor compliance with our Policy through our Ethical Sourcing Program (Program) and the conditions of compliance are contained in our Program Requirements. Through our Program, we work collaboratively with our direct suppliers, and selected suppliers within our extended supply chain, to continuously improve performance and to address any issues when they arise.

Where we are made aware of issues in our supply chain, we endeavour to work with our suppliers to ensure the issue is remediated for affected parties. Coles will always treat suppliers fairly and with consideration of individual circumstances. However, we cannot and will not accept unaddressed human rights or environmental abuses in our supply chain.

If a supplier is unable or unwilling to comply with the Policy and Program Requirements, or refuses to participate in the Program, Coles reserves the right to exercise its rights under the relevant supply or services agreement which may include suspension of orders or termination of the agreement where compliance with the Policy and Program Requirements is not rectified.
4.1 Our Ethical Sourcing Standards

All suppliers must comply with the Standards set out below:

4.1 Compliance with Local Laws

4.1.1 All suppliers must fully comply with all local laws and regulations regarding labour and human rights, health, safety, and the environment. Suppliers must also fully comply with the legal requirements of the countries in which they operate in addition to all elements of the Policy.

4.1.2 If local laws, regulations, or legal requirements differ from the elements in the Policy or Program Requirements, suppliers are expected to comply with whichever affords the greater protection to workers.

4.1.3 Coles reserves the right to audit suppliers to ensure compliance with all local laws, the Policy and Program Requirements. Audits may be announced, semi-announced or unannounced. If a supplier or sub-contractor refuses to participate in an audit without reasonable grounds, Coles reserves the right to exercise its rights under the relevant supply or services agreement which may include suspension of orders or termination of the agreement.

4.1.4 Where there is a dispute regarding compliance with local law, Coles may seek independent legal advice, or obtain direction directly from the relevant Regulatory authority.

4.2 Modern Slavery

4.2.1 Suppliers must comply with all modern slavery laws and regulations relevant to their jurisdiction and any other law applicable to the supply of goods or services to Coles including compliance with any reporting requirements.

4.2.2 Suppliers must have appropriate controls in place to avoid modern slavery practices in their operations and supply chains and must not knowingly deal with third parties who engage in modern slavery practices.

4.2.3 All suppliers must have in place and maintain adequate policies and procedures in relation to business ethics and compliance to ensure compliance with modern slavery laws and to enforce all relevant policies and procedures where appropriate. This includes policies for reporting, investigating, and remediating suspected or known breaches of modern slavery laws.

4.3 Forced/ Bonded Labour

4.3.1 Suppliers must not use any form of servitude, forced, bonded, involuntary prison, indentured, trafficked, or involuntary labour.

4.3.2 Employment must be freely chosen.

4.3.3 Workers must be given freedom of movement. Workers must not be required to lodge deposits or identity papers with suppliers.

4.3.4 Workers must be free to leave their employment after reasonable notice has been given.

4.3.5 Suppliers must take steps to recruit responsibly. This includes not engaging in deceptive recruiting practices and having recruitment policies and practices in place to ensure that no worker pays any recruitment fees or costs associated with securing work.

4.3.6 Suppliers must have management systems in place to ensure that where labour providers/recruitment agents are used, they do not charge mandatory fees for services provided as part of the recruitment or employment process, throughout any stage.
4.3.7 Suppliers are responsible for paying the full cost of recruiting workers. Where recruitment fees or costs are identified and have been paid by workers, Coles will work with suppliers to determine appropriate remediation requirements which may include refunding sums to workers.

This policy should be read with the Coles Ethical Sourcing – Forced / Bonded Labour Remediation Requirements document (available on the Coles Group website), which outline Coles’ requirements on responsible recruitment and remediation.

4.4 Child Labour

4.4.1 Coles is committed to respecting the human rights of all workers in our supply chain, including vulnerable groups such as children.

4.4.2 Suppliers must not use child labour. Child labour is defined as work that deprives children of their childhood, the opportunity to attend school and fulfill their potential and that is harmful to their physical and mental development.

4.4.3 Suppliers must be able to verify the age of all employees to ensure no child labour is used. Coles refers to the International Labour Organization’s Minimum Age Convention, 1973 (No. 138 definition and guidance on child labour) in the absence of strong legislative child labour protections.

4.4.4 In the event child labour is identified, suppliers shall prioritise the welfare of the child, and ensure that a remediation plan placing the child’s welfare as paramount is put in place with plans to prevent re-occurrence.

The Coles Ethical Sourcing – Child Labour Remediation Requirements document (available on the Coles Group website) outlines Coles’ expectations on remediation if practices inconsistent with these standards are identified.

4.5 Harsh or Inhumane Treatment

4.5.1 All forms of intimidation are prohibited, including but not limited to physical abuse or physical discipline, the threat of physical abuse, sexual or other harassment and verbal abuse.

4.6 Wages and Benefits

4.6.1 Wages and benefits paid for a standard working week must, as a minimum meet national or industry standards, whichever is the higher. In any event, wages should always be enough to meet basic needs and to provide some discretionary income for workers and their families and/or dependents (otherwise referred to as a Living Wage).

4.6.2 All workers must be provided with information about their employment conditions in respect to wages, before they enter employment, and about the particulars of their wages for the pay period concerned each time they are paid. Information must be provided in written form, and in a language understood by the worker.

4.6.3 Deductions from wages may only occur with the express written permission of the worker concerned and where permitted by law.

4.6.4 Deductions from wages for disciplinary measures are not permitted.

4.6.5 Accurate and complete records of wages and benefits paid to each worker, and any deductions made must be maintained.
4.7 Working Hours

4.7.1 Coles is aligned to the Ethical Trade Initiative requirement which states that total hours worked in any 7-day period shall not exceed 60 hours, except in exceptional circumstances, where all of the following are met:

a) it is allowed by national law (provided those laws do not exceed 80 hours);

b) and appropriate safeguards are taken to protect the workers’ health and safety;

c) and the employer can demonstrate that exceptional circumstances apply such as unexpected production peaks, accidents or emergencies.

Working hours can have a variety of root causes, some which may take time to address.

Coles may provide additional time to reduce working hours including where special or exceptional circumstances exist, provided that working hours are voluntary and Coles and the supplier agree appropriate safeguards to protect the workers health and safety which may also include other requirements such as ongoing corrective action plans to address root cause.

Countries with a legal limit of below 60 hours per week are expected to comply with the lower limit provided by local law.

4.7.2 Workers must have at least one day off in 7 days or two days off in every 14 days.

4.7.3 Where total hours worked in any 7-day period exceed 80 hours, immediate suspension of orders may be imposed until evidence of reduced hours, which have been verified by an independent APSCA certified body, is provided. For the avoidance of doubt, where the Food and Grocery Code of Conduct is applicable to a supply agreement, working hours in excess of 80 hours is likely to constitute a safety issue in accordance with s.19(6)(a).

4.7.4 Workers must be provided with reasonable rest breaks during their working day in accordance with local laws.

4.7.5 Overtime must be voluntary and compensated as prescribed by local laws, or where local laws do not exist, overtime should be compensated in line with the ETI Base Code.

4.7.6 Accurate and complete records of hours worked by each worker must be maintained.

4.8 Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining

4.8.1 Suppliers acknowledge that workers have a right to freedom of association and to bargain collectively.

4.8.2 Workers have a right to join or form trade unions of their choosing. Suppliers must not prevent or disrupt the activities of trade unions and their organisation activities. No workers shall be subjected to harassment, intimidation, or retaliation for exercising their right to freedom of association and collective bargaining. Workers’ representatives should have access to carry out their representative functions in the workplace.

4.8.3 Where the right to freedom of association and collective bargaining are restricted under local laws, suppliers will not hinder the development of alternative means of independent and free association and bargaining.

4.9 Safe Working Conditions

4.9.1 Suppliers will provide plant and systems of work that are safe and without risk to health.

4.9.2 Suppliers will provide workers with a safe and clean working environment taking into consideration the prevailing knowledge of the industry and of any specific hazards.

4.9.3 Workers shall be provided adequate training to perform their jobs in a safe manner, and participation in training shall be recorded.

4.9.4 Where required to perform their duties, personal protective equipment must be supplied by the suppliers at no cost to workers, and workers shall be trained in its use.

4.9.5 Suppliers will provide safeguards on machinery to ensure operational safety and compliance with local laws.

4.9.6 Where suppliers provide worker accommodation, it must be clean, safe and at a minimum, meet the basic needs of workers.

4.9.7 Workers shall have access to clean toilet facilities, clean drinking water and where appropriate sanitary facilities for food storage and preparation.

4.9.8 Suppliers shall assign responsibility for health and safety to a senior management representative.

4.9.9 Suppliers shall ensure that all health and safety procedures comply with applicable national and local laws.

The Coles Ethical Sourcing – Worker Accommodation Guidelines document (available on the Coles Group website) provides information on standards for accommodation arranged by suppliers or labour hire providers on workers’ behalf.

4.10 Discrimination

4.10.1 Suppliers must ensure there is no discrimination in hiring, compensation, access to training, promotion, termination, or retirement based on race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status such as disability, age, marital and family status, sexual orientation and gender identity, health status, place of residence, economic and social situation.

4.10.2 Responsibility should be allocated to ensure women’s health and rights are considered and appropriate actions are taken by management to address concerns or issues when they arise.

4.11 Regular Employment

4.11.1 To every extent possible, work performed must be on the basis of a recognised employment relationship established through national law and practice.
4.11.2 Workers who have a regular employment relationship with their employer are afforded obligations from their employer relating to labour and social security laws and regulations. These obligations shall not be avoided through the use of labour-only contracting, sub-contracting, home-working arrangements, fixed term contracts or through apprenticeship schemes where there is no real intent to impart skills or provide regular employment.

4.12 Illegal Labour
4.12.1 Suppliers must not use illegal labour.
4.12.2 Suppliers must be able to verify the legal entitlement of their employees to work in the country of employment.

4.13 Environment
4.13.1 Suppliers must comply with local and national environmental laws and regulations.
4.13.2 Suppliers must manage their waste, wastewater, and pollutants responsibly and seek to improve their environmental performance. This includes ensuring that communities’ access to water is not negatively impacted by the suppliers’ operations.

4.14 Land Rights
4.14.1 Suppliers will ensure appropriate steps are taken to identify and respect legitimate tenure rights holders when acquiring, leasing or using land.

4.15 Grievance Mechanisms and Remediation
4.15.1 Suppliers are to provide appropriate channels for worker and community grievances, and these channels are to be effectively communicated (for example, in spoken languages, in physical and electronic forms). These channels will be communicated in addition to building capacity and awareness around social and labour practices. The effectiveness of these channels will be assessed using stakeholder feedback.
4.15.2 Worker grievances are to be heard, appropriately investigated, and any required remediation taken in a timely manner. Complainants are to be informed throughout the process and informed of their options for escalation.
4.15.3 Channels must be provided through which adversely affected people or communities, including workers, can raise complaints or concerns without fear of retaliation, intimidation, harassment, discrimination, or victimisation.
4.15.4 Suppliers must not obstruct access to other remedies, including judicial or non-judicial remedies. Suppliers will also support the work of and will be open to working with the Australian National Contact Point (AUSNCP) or equivalent.
4.15.5 An anonymous, confidential method for all workers to raise concerns to the supplier without fear of retaliation shall be provided.
4.15.6 Coles respects the rights of human rights defenders, and does not tolerate threats, intimidation, or attacks against human rights defenders. Suppliers must uphold this same commitment to human rights defenders.

4.16 Business Integrity
4.16.1 Suppliers must engage professional business ethics in all dealings, and not act in any manner which, by association, may bring Coles into disrepute.
4.16.2 Bribery, facilitation payments, secret commissions or payments and any money laundering (whether directly involving a public official, private company or individual, and whether directly or indirectly through a third party), are strictly prohibited.

4.17 Reporting and Documentation

4.17.1 Suppliers must ensure that appropriate policies and documentation are in place to ensure effective ethical management practices.

4.17.2 The supplier must take all necessary steps to ensure that:

a) it is able to make relevant personal information it holds available to Coles and Certified Auditors; and

b) Coles and Coles’ appointees may collect, use, and disclose that personal information, for the purposes of the Policy and Program Requirements, as well as any applicable agreements, laws or regulations, including providing employee personal information for compliance audits. This may include providing notices and obtaining consents where required by law for Coles and Coles’ appointees to do those things.

4.17.3 The supplier must provide all reasonable assistance to Coles so that Coles can ensure the supplier’s ongoing compliance with this Policy and any applicable agreements, laws, or regulations. This may include a site inspection or audit and/or all relevant documentation arising out of or in connection with the goods or services provided by the supplier.

4.18 Management Systems and Training

4.18.1 Suppliers must ensure appropriate documentation, evidence, processes, and systems are in place and continually developed to ensure effective ethical management practices.

4.18.2 Suppliers must provide adequate information to their employees on their rights as outlined within this Policy.

4.19 Sub-Contracting and Labour Hire

4.19.1 Suppliers must ensure that all its sub-contractors and any Labour Hire providers (including recruitment agents) comply with the Policy and Program Requirements.

4.19.2 Suppliers must document all sub-contracting relationships and seek prior approval of Coles where required by the supply agreement prior to entering any sub-contracting arrangement.

4.19.3 On request, suppliers must supply to Coles or an independent auditor, a list of all subcontractors specific to Coles’ engagement – including their name, business number and address.

4.19.4 The Supplier’s approved Subcontractors (including Labour Hire providers) must not further Subcontract under any circumstances. At Coles sub-contractors include:

For Goods:

Sites contracted by Coles’ direct suppliers to:

- produce Goods in their final form;
- pack into their final form;
- produce in bulk in final form for packing elsewhere; or
- receive in bulk final form for packing.

Sites that significantly contribute to the final form of the Goods. Examples of processes considered to significantly contribute to the final form of the Goods include (but are not limited to):

- embellishing, pressing, fabric finishing and printing;
- partial garment cut and trim;
- peeling, trimming, husking, de-hulling, or filleting;
- harvesting of fresh fruit, vegetables, or seafood;
- grow produce for retail sale;
- pack produce for retail sale;
- operate as an aggregator, distributor, broker, or agent supplying Goods for retail sale; and
- a co-packer.

For Services:

Suppliers subcontracted by Coles direct suppliers to deliver the service that Coles has contracted the direct supplier to deliver. For example, a supplier being contracted by Coles to provide cleaning, security, delivery, or similar services, and subcontracting this service to a third-party provider.

4.19.5 Suppliers must have adequate policies and processes in place to properly manage subcontracting, to ensure that sub-contractors / labour hire providers operate in accordance with applicable laws, regulations and the Policy, and commit to respecting each of the International Labour Organization’s fundamental principles and rights at work.

4.19.6 Coles’ direct suppliers must ensure that sub-contracted suppliers, sites and / or labour hire providers undertake the relevant activities outlined in the Program Requirements. This may include registration on SEDEX, Fair Farms, SAP Ariba or other systems as directed by Coles.

4.19.7 Coles reserves the right to audit subcontracted suppliers, sites and / or labour hire providers. These audits may be announced or unannounced.

4.19.8 Where applicable, the supplier must ensure the subcontractor / labour hire provider holds a current licence / registration to undertake the stated activities and provide a copy of that licence to Coles on request.

The Coles Ethical Sourcing – Third Party Labour Providers Guideline document (available on the Coles Group website) provides information on the risks associated with the use of Labour Hire, and the mitigating actions that suppliers should have in place to manage and oversee their Labour Hire contracts.

4.2 Coles Grievance Mechanisms

Coles supports open and transparent working relationships, where concerns can be safely voiced. We encourage all our stakeholders to raise concerns where they observe or suspect adverse impacts on people, communities or environment within Coles’ supply chain. All concerns raised are assessed to determine how they should be investigated. Where remedy is necessary, this may be provided by Coles directly, or in collaboration with third parties. We provide several mechanisms for concerns and complaints to be raised confidentially and/or anonymously. More information can be found in our Whistleblower Policy which is available on the Coles Group website.
4.2.1 STOPline

STOPline is a confidential hotline service run by an independent third party that all stakeholders can use to anonymously raise concerns or complaints. STOPline will refer matters to Coles for investigation, but if anonymity has been requested, STOPline will not share personal details with Coles. STOPline can be accessed in the following ways:

Coles promotes its Wages and Conditions Hotline in 10 languages prevalent in our supply chain on colesgroup.com.au. Workers who wish to engage in a language other than English are encouraged to email their concern to wageline@coles.com.au. Arrangements will then be made to speak with / communicate in the chosen language.

4.3.3 Remediation Framework

At Coles, we believe that if people are harmed as a result of something we caused or to which we contributed, we have a duty of care in addressing these issues and implementing mechanisms for control.

The Coles Remediation Framework document (available on the Coles Group website) sets out the core principles Coles adheres to, and expects its suppliers to adhere to, for providing effective remediation of human rights and ethical sourcing issues.
4.3 Governance

Our Ethical Sourcing Program and approach to human rights is overseen by our Board and Executive Leadership Team. The responsibilities and accountabilities for ethical sourcing at Coles are outlined below:

4.3.1 Board

The Coles Board is responsible for the approval of Coles’ Human Rights Strategy and Ethical Sourcing Policy. It receives and reviews regular reports on the status of the strategy including Coles’ program to address human rights in our supply chains. Coles senior management are regularly invited to present to the Board on the content of the report and to answer questions.

4.3.2 Audit and Risk Committee

The Audit and Risk Committee is a committee of the Board. As ethical sourcing is identified as a material risk to Coles, it is responsible for evaluating Coles’ ethical sourcing performance and the effectiveness of ethical sourcing risk management systems and processes.

4.3.3 Executive Management

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Human Rights Steering Committee</th>
<th>The Human Rights Steering Committee is a cross-functional management committee chaired by the Chief Legal Officer. The Committee guides Coles’ approach and management of human rights issues. <td>Ethical Sourcing team</td>
<td>The Ethical Sourcing team is responsible for the administration of the Ethical Sourcing Program and works in partnership with functional business units to execute actions. Key activities include: assessing supplier risk, engaging businesses based on risk, assessing performance through self-assessment questionnaires and third-party ethical audits to identify potential human rights risks, investigating allegations of human rights abuses and working to ensure that action and remediation of risks/issues are in line with global best practice standards. The team includes two in-house certified auditors (as certified by the Association of Professional Social Compliance Auditors) to manage the ethical audit program.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Functional Teams</td>
<td>While everyone at Coles shares the responsibility of ensuring that goods and services are procured ethically, Coles’ category teams, procurement teams, contract owners and contract managers and product technologists have the direct relationship with suppliers and are responsible for the day-to-day execution of the Ethical Sourcing Program. Functional teams are regularly updated on the status of the Ethical Sourcing Program and human rights commitments. Performance information is also included in training aimed at ensuring team members understand their ethical sourcing and human rights responsibilities and the impact of their actions.</td>
</tr>

4.4 Consultation and Feedback

The Policy and Program Requirements are reviewed regularly in consultation with affected stakeholders to align with changes in regulations and reflect best practice. Through these engagements, we seek feedback on how well the Policy and Program Requirements work in practice.

Stakeholders are able to provide feedback regarding Coles’ Ethical Sourcing Program Policy or Supplier Requirements, or to request a translation of the Policy and/or Program Requirements in another language, by contacting the Coles Ethical Sourcing team at EthicalSourcing@coles.com.au.
5. Breach of Policy

Any breaches of this policy will be treated as serious misconduct and will result in disciplinary action being taken, which could include termination of employment, suspension of orders or termination of contractual arrangements.

6. Policy Review

This Policy will be reviewed annually to:

1. ensure that it remains current with respect to legal and regulatory requirements;
2. ensure that it operates effectively; and
3. confirm whether any changes are required.

Any amendment to this Policy must be approved by the ELT and Board.

Approved by the Board on 13 December 2023.
